

Saturday, May 11, 2019

Noon-3:00pm

Hosanna Tabor Lutheran Church
9600 Laverne, Redford, MI 48239

Mother's Day Tea

Join us for an afternoon tea, lunch, live entertainment, door prizes, and silent auction. Key note speaker will share a positive and uplifting message of hope and faith. Proceeds will support our local food pantry and local youth leadership programs provided by GMCA non-profit 501c3 organization.

The food pantry serves Redford and the local area Youth Leadership Programs that provide area students with leadership development through community service. Funds will support future scholarships for high school students.

Tickets on sale April 1st - Cost for tickets will be $20 each and includes lunch and door prize ticket.

Shauna Rae Hazime has been entertaining audiences since the age of three. She is a graduate of Oakland University, a singer/songwriter, an educator, a performer, and a friendly face.

Key Note Speaker for the Mother's Day Tea is Sarah Alesand! Come hear the message of hope and service to others, and meet Wayne State Students for Humanity.

Melanie Hines will offer interpretive and expressive dance to inspiring music. Ms. Hines brings many years of dance experience for all ages and many performance venues.
